

Prescribing for Psychosis in Primary Care First presentation

Avoid the initiation of antipsychotics prior to consultation with a psychiatrist wherever possible, due to the possibility of masking symptoms and making diagnosis difficult.

The choice of antipsychotic agent will follow the treatment guidelines agreed with secondary care.

Using the prioritisation based on the severity of presenting symptoms detailed in the protocol:

Acute exacerbation / Relapse

